09/00994/FULL – Erection of extension to farmhouse with associated groundworks and extension to holiday let barn with internal alterations at Luggs, Culm Davy.

It was proposed by Mr.Povah, seconded by Mr.Hart that approval be recommended – all agreed.

Risk Assessments

Each risk assessment was discussed and was amended as necessary.

It was decided to get a sign for Millhayes Bridge saying “Danger deep Water”.

Mrs.Stallard to speak to Lesley Smith at DAPC to discuss statutory records.

Seats

Following a discussion about the state of the seat on the Byes Road it was decided to ask Robin Porch to give us a quote for repairing, as necessary, and treating all the seats around the parish.

Clerk to contact Mr. John Bendall to ask his permission to cut back the hedge around the seat on the Byes Road.

Footpaths

Mr.Povah had brought a map with the proposed footpath and bridleway alterations marked on it, all of which were discussed.

Councillors decided that from the Parish Council's point of view, in principle, all were a good idea as long as the landowners are not disadvantaged.

There being no further business the meeting closed at 9.25pm.
